Rocky Mountain Threads of Life

DONOR FAMILY QUILT PROJECT

These quilts commemorate those who have given the gift of life through their donation of organs and/or tissue. Each square is created by family members to reflect their feelings about their loved one. The quilt squares are then sewn together by a professional quilter to form a beautiful, memorable quilt. The quilts are displayed at special events in Colorado and Wyoming to honor those who gave the gift of life and encourage people to register to be organ and tissue donors.

Your quilt piece should be 8" square: your 7" design plus a ½" margin (see pattern on reverse side). Your square can be made by sewing decorative stitches, appliqué, computer art, silk screen, paint, drawing, or any other method you choose. Feel free to include a poem, quotation or other symbol of your loved one's life.

Please submit only one quilt square in honor of your loved one. In order for your quilt square to be displayed, you must return the signed Quilt Square Release Form with your completed quilt square. You may send your quilt square to Donor Alliance at any time.
